

Hoppy Easter!

I'm so glad Easter is finally here because I've been waiting all year to bring you this special basket. I'm an Easter egg-spert so I've made sure to fill your basket with the best sweets and treats. Make sure you try the chocolate, it's to dye for!

I wish I could stay and celebrate with you but I need to hop along and deliver the rest of these baskets to other kids like you. I hope you have a very hoppy Easter. I carrot wait to visit you next year!

With egg-stra love,
The Easter Bunny
