

Happy, hoppy Easter to you! I've been working hard all year to decorate and prepare eggs for you to find. Hop around the house to find them all, but make sure to leave some for others so they can experience the Easter magic too. I really hope you enjoy the sweet treats I left for you!

I'd love to stay and play, but I have so many houses to visit that I have to be on my hippity-hoppity way. Happy hunting!

Love,
The Easter Bunny
