

Hey!

I'm hopping by to say a warm springtime hello and to wish you a happy Easter! You've been such a good egg all year long that I thought it was time to give you a very special gift, filled with all of your favorite things. I'm egg-static for you to see what's in your basket! The treats are to dye for!

Make sure to keep up the great work so I can visit your house next year. It's time for me to hop on down the bunny trail so I can deliver more Easter happiness to other kids like you.

Have an egg-stra special Easter day. I hope it brings you smiles by the dozen!

Warmest wishes,
The Easter Bunny

HAVE A HOPPY HOPPY EASTER!
