

FROM THE DESK of the EASTER BUNNY

Some-bunny's egg-cited for Easter and that some-bunny is me! I was so hoppy to learn that you've been egg-stra good all year long! Because of your hard work I was able to leave you with a special Easter surprise. I made sure to fill your basket with all of my favorite treats, minus the carrots, of course. Carrots give me the energy I need to continue down the bunny trail to deliver baskets to more kids like you.

My favorite part of Easter is making special deliveries and hiding eggs for you to find. Make sure to stay egg-stra good until next time so I can visit your house again. I hope your Easter this year is sweeter than jelly beans!

Love,
The Easter Bunny
