

FROM THE DESK OF THE EASTER BUNNY

Hip-hop hooray! It's Easter day! You've been so good all year I thought it was time you had some Easter fun so I've hidden eggs for you to find. How egg-citing!

Be fast and furriest as you look for your eggs, but remember to play fair and leave some for others to find so we can all enjoy this egg-citing game. I sure wish I could stick around to help you find some but I need to get back onto the bunny trail. Hop on over to your first clue and let the egg hunt begin!

Good luck!
